

Ernesto Cervini Quartet - There
Press Quotes

"Cervini recalls such old-schoolers as Art Blakey and Billy Higgins...his robust, magnetic personality fascinates consistently."

Ken Micallef - Modern Drummer Magazine

"A perceptive young drummer...an energetic album!"

The New York Times

"A tastefully buoyant drummer as well as a sharp composer and bandleader"

Time Out New York

"Ernesto Cervini is blazing a path through contemporary jazz with smart new ideas and a burning intensity that shouts to be heard. An album that has to be one of 2011's best."

Geoff Chapman - Wholenote Magazine

"On There, you can often practically hear the musicians smiling and reveling in their creativity and musical repartee...some superb, high-energy, spur-of-the-moment music"

Peter Hum - The Ottawa Citizen

"There (is) a live recording brimming with vitality, energy and the type of unbridled swing seldom heard these days...a wonderful mix of engaging compositions. Ernesto Cervini is a dynamic force..."

Brent Black - @Critical Jazz

"One of the more joyful releases of this or any year in recent history. Soulful, swinging and joyous, "There" is a winner!"

Richard Kamins - Step Tempest.com

"Sometimes the best way to honor a tradition is to take its tenets at face value and simply play the hell out of them...that is what the Ernesto Cervini Quartet does on There...(the album) crackles with bandstand camaraderie and joy of shared discovery."

John Chacona - Signal to Noise Magazine

"Tasty, contemporary jazz that refuses to let you predict where it's headed."

Chris Spector - Midwest Record

"The live ambiance encouraged the band and spurred creativity that we could feel especially on the syncopated TGV. "There" is swinging with Cervini creating the backbeats and Frahm driving the melodies."

Dr. Oscar Groomes - O's Place Jazz Magazine
